August 29, 1985

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20050

Dear President Reagan:

The approaching summit meeting between you and the General Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, Mr. Mikhail Gorbachev, is in the immediate future.

My plea to you is that, in any bargaining or trade-offs with the General Secretary, you will put a strong lobbying effort to release Raoul Wallenberg high on your agenda. This distinguished world citizen, who has been incarcerated for over forty years, should, in the name of humanity, be allowed to live his remaining years in freedom and in dignity.

Anything you can do to end this incarceration of Raoul Wallenberg would be appreciated by all freedom-loving citizens of the world.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

John W. McCann
